CARR WORKSPACES - ROSSYLN

1001 19TH STREET, NORTH

SUITE 1200

ARLINGTON, VA 22209

Showcase your technical capabilities as a prospective small-business teaming partner for the upcoming United States Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) DLITE contract.

If your company has expertise in the areas of: Interpretation, Translation, OCONUS Program Management or OCONUS Program Support, and are interested in supporting this effort, register today to be considered.

These events allow individualized, face-to-face interaction between MEP executives and prospective DLITE small business teammates. Key MEP sections (Business Development, Contracts, Recruiting, etc.) will be at this event to facilitate a streamlined assessment, selection, and teaming process.

All small-business participants should submit a candidate profile to MEP in advance of the event. Candidates may fulfill this requirement by completing the teaming form located at <http://www.missionep.com/business/dlite>. Additionally, please provide a general company capabilities brief to Arielle Dixon at Arielle.dixon@missionep.com.

Reserve your spot by visiting: <http://www.theasbc.org/MEP/DLITE>.

(Space is limited. No more than two representatives permitted per company.)

Questions prior to the event? Send inquiries to B2GTeamUp@theasbc.org.
